

DAISY

And Mama Brown? How is she?

SHERMAN

She's Mama Brown. She's doing just fine.

DAISY

I don't know about you but I'm on a countdown till we get out of here and go to college.

Sherman doesn't say anything.

DAISY (CONT'D)

You still haven't heard anything?... Sherman, I'm hoping you get in but you gotta tell your parents something in case you don't.

SHERMAN

I'll worry about that when it's time but maybe me not getting accepted is a blessing in disguise.

DAISY

How Sherman?

SHERMAN

My dad is the sole provider for our family. We were barely making it before he got sick and with him down there's no way we're going to survive.

DAISY

What are you saying?

SHERMAN

I don't know about college Daisy. My folks sacrificed a lot for me, it might be time I have to do the same for them.

DAISY

Your parents wouldn't want you to do that.

SHERMAN

I don't even know if I really want to go.

DAISY

Of course you do Sherman, you're the first in your family. This is your dream.

SHERMAN

This is their dream... Mine.... I'm not so sure about.

Sherman and Daisy exit as Manager enters.
