

Manager comes running in, panicked, and stressed along with LEROI, Rick James' younger brother.

MANAGER

What is he doing out there?

LEROI

He's funking it up. Look at the people they're excited.

MANAGER

I've told him a million times Leroi he can't smoke on stage. He's your brother, maybe you can get through to him.

LEROI

This ain't the church choir man and besides can't nobody make Rick James do anything other than what he feels like doing.

MANAGER

I hope he feels like going to jail then.

RICK JAMES

They're always trying to tell me Rick you can't smoke on stage. Well guess what Dallas? We're gonna smoke anyways! And if the police bother me you tear this mother sucka up!!

MANAGER

I gotta stop him.

LEROI

Good luck with that!

Manager runs out and tries to stop Rick from smoking. After a little back and forth fun, Manager is able to grab the joint from Rick. Chased by Rick, Manager exits.
