

MAMA BROWN
Sherman you're going to college!

SHERMAN
It's just be a summer job mama, I promise. I'm still going to go to college just like you want me too.

MAMA BROWN
I don't know Sherman.

SHERMAN
Best part is it pays triple what I was making at the Jay Victoria Theatre.

MAMA BROWN
Triple?

SHERMAN
As in money, money, money like the O'Jays.

MAMA BROWN
The O'Jays?!

SHERMAN
I'll explain it to you later mama just know that I'm going to be able to help you and daddy even more now.

MAMA BROWN
I don't know about this Sherman.

SHERMAN
Trust me mama, trust me.

MAMA BROWN
This doesn't sound like a good idea to me.

SHERMAN
It's like you said, no part-time job at a theatre is going to take care of us but me doing this before college is going to take care of not only our family but all the little Sherman Jr.'s me and Daisy might have one day.

MAMA BROWN
Now you're talking my language Sherman. Okay, I trust you'll make mama proud.

SHERMAN
You know I will mama, you know I will.

MAMA BROWN
I'm going to tell your daddy the good news!

Mama Brown exits.
